

Supervisor Update

19 August 2009

Accreditation of Separate Trainers by RACGP

There has been recent discussion about the introduction of fees to separately accredit trainers as part of the new training practice accreditation arrangements introduced on 1 January 2009. After discussions with the RACGP, the College has kindly agreed to waive any fees associated with the separate accreditation of trainers. GPET gratefully acknowledge RACGP's support.

RTP Collaboration Plans – Feedback

The GPET Board has now completed its assessment of draft RTP collaboration plans submitted as part of the provider contracting process for 2010-12. RTPs have received feedback from GPET on their plans and discussions are continuing. The submission date for final plans is now 30 Sept 09.

GPET/Medical Observer GP Supervisor of the Year Award

Thank you to all who submitted nominations for the 2009 GPET Awards. We received a total of 72 nominations across the seven award categories. The awards will be presented during the opening plenary of the GPET Convention on Wednesday 2 September, including the presentation of the GPET/Medical Observer GP Supervisor of the Year. We look forward to seeing you there.

GPET Convention - Symposia Sessions

This year's Convention will host four symposia, which will run concurrently with the workshop and paper presentation sessions, over the two-day program. These symposia, run by nominated RTPs, will cover the themes of Sustaining Registrars; Teaching Practices (including supervisors); Medical Educators; and General Practice. Come along to these interactive sessions – listen and have your say on issues and ideas that could change the future of general practice.

National General Practice Supervisors' Association AGM

The 5th NGPSA AGM will be held in Adelaide, from 8-8.30am, Thursday 3 September. Among the agenda items for the meeting is the election of directors. For more details contact Julia Clarke.

Conference Season

Other than the GPET Convention, 2-3 September, there are several other conferences of interest coming up. RACGP's GP'09 Conference will be held in from 1 - 4 October and ACRRM/RDAA's Rural Medicine Australia 2009 will be held from 30 October – 1 November.
