

Academic Registrars Projects 2015 Cohort

Name	RTP	University	Project Title
Amelia Stephens	GPTQ	The University of Queensland	The top 10 questions about medications in lactation: what are they and how can we better address them?
Andrew Davey	Valley to Coast	The University of Newcastle	Exploring diagnostic processes for transient ischaemic attack in general practice, and can a transient ischaemic attack recognition tool work in primary care?
Chelsea Guymer	AOGP	The University of Adelaide	Aging and eye disease: are we blind to early detection and intervention? A pilot study to examine the timely detection and engagement in care of age related eye disease in the Australian general practice population.
David Ford	GP Synergy	The University of New England (UNE)	Assessing the feasibility of a targeted chlamydia screening program for the high risk population: University college students 18-29yrs
Ethan Salleh	GPTQ	The University of Queensland	Does the delivery of care through GP led "mini clinics" improve the control of surrogate markers for the prevention of complications in patients with Type 2 Diabetes (T2DM)?
Freya Ashman	CCCGPT	The Australian National University	Managing adult obesity in general practice: a pilot study of The Change Program.
Hannah Visser	North Coast GP Training	The University Centre for Rural Health	Does Interferon Gamma Release Assay (Quantiferon TB Gold) testing through a Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service provide a valid approach to screening for latent TB infection in the context of ongoing TB transmission in the target community?

Name	RTP	University	Project Title
Jane Maxwell	VMA	The University of Melbourne	General Practitioners as Climate Change and Health Advocates: Challenges and Opportunities
Jessica Smith	AOGP	The Adelaide University	Attitudes and experience of general practitioners and registrars' care of people with an intellectual disability
Kelly Hamill	North Coast GP Training	The University of the Sunshine Coast	Co-sleeping, breastfeeding and SUDI: a risk minimisation approach to facilitate informed decision making by parents of young infants
Lucy Carter	GPTT	The University of Wollongong	Tasmanian General Practice Registrars' knowledge and attitudes towards opioid prescribing in chronic non cancer pain
Nadia Khan	GP Synergy	The University of Sydney	GP Registrars' self-care practices and their access to health care
Naomi Farragher	QRME	The University of Queensland	What are the barriers for patients obtaining access to good palliative care within a rural setting in Queensland, and can telehealth be used to overcome these barriers?
Niral Shah	CCCGPT	The Australian National University	Evaluation of pilot module of 3rd year medical student performing clinical audit under direct supervision of GP supervisor in teaching urban general practices of Australian National University Medical School
Samantha Baker	GP Synergy	The University of New England	Diagnosing coeliac disease: what presentations are prompting GPs to initiate testing?
Sarah James	GPTQ	The University of Queensland	A qualitative study of barriers and enablers to contraception use amongst breastfeeding Indigenous Australian women in the 12 months following childbirth.

Name	RTP	University	Project Title
Shamila Palipana	North Coast GP Training	The Bond University	Investigating adverse effects of common antibiotics from routinely held adverse effects reporting at the TGA
Sheree Cross	AOGP	The University of Queensland	Patient Factors Associated with Advanced Care Planning in Darwin Nursing Homes
Katherine Thornton – AFP academic registrar	SGPT	The Deakin University	TBA
Aditya Mallik - AIDA academic registrar	CCCGPT	The Australian National University	E-health and Indigenous Population: Opportunities and Challenges, An observational cohort study of Aboriginal population attending Winnunga Nimmityjah aboriginal health Service ACT.